SHARE YOUR OPINION(S) ON YOUR PEOPLES TRANSPORTATION PLAN

Miami, FL – The Citizens Transportation Advisory Committee (CTAC), the citizen's group of the Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO), which is the agency responsible for the transportation planning process in Miami-Dade County, is hosting a televised meeting to discuss, with County Officials, the proposed changes to the Peoples Transportation Plan (PTP) and its impacts. This interactive meeting will give the citizens' of Miami-Dade County the chance to better understand the current status of the PTP and voice their opinions on the proposed changes.

"It is important that the citizenry have the opportunity to learn all they can about the PTP and what direction we need to head towards the creation of a healthy transportation system. It is equally important for citizens to express their views regarding the PTP and the CTAC wants to provide this forum," stated Mike Hatcher, CTAC Chair.

What: Interactive, Televised CTAC meeting to discuss the status of the PTP

When: Wednesday, January 26, 2005 at 5:30 PM

Where: County Commission Chambers in the Stephen P. Clark Center, 111 NW 1st Street, Miami, FL 33128

Televised: The meeting will be broadcast on the County's cable-access TV station, Miami-Dade TV. Residents are encouraged to check with their local cable operators for the correct channel in their lineup.
